

Payment Options, Course Fees and Subsidies (July 2026)

Fees cover enrolment, tuition, course materials, textbooks, and other services related to your training and assessment. Please be aware that fees and subsidies are subject to change. For verification, contact our office at admin@ruralbiztraining.edu.au.

Payment Options

1. Upfront Payment

- Individual students can pay up to $1,500 of their course fee up-front.
- Employers or organisations can pay up to $1,500 up-front and the balance of fees become progressional payments across the employee's or member's course duration.

2. Payment plan

- Payments can be made weekly, fortnightly, monthly, or quarterly via direct debit from a nominated bank account or credit card throughout your enrolment. Payment plans are administered by DebitSuccess - www.debitsuccess.com.au
- Fees: $15 establishment fee + administration charge. The establishment fee is paid in your first instalment, and the administration fee becomes part of your scheduled deduction.

3. Vet Student Loans – all states

VET Student Loans are Australian Government loans that help eligible students pay for all, or part of, their tuition fees for higher-level VET courses (Diploma and Advanced Diploma) undertaken at approved providers. Eligible courses are:

- AHC50122 Diploma of Agriculture
- AHC50422 Diploma of Horticulture Management
- AHC51222 Diploma of Community Group Coordination and Facilitation
- AHC51422 Diploma of Agribusiness Management
- AHC60319 Advanced Diploma of Agribusiness Management

A VET student loan gives rise to a VETSL debt that continues to be a debt due to the Commonwealth until it is repaid. The 2026 VSL loan cap for these courses is $19,290. Additional information on VET Student loans is available on our website at <http://www.ruralbiztraining.edu.au/vet-student-loans> or by visiting the government Study Assist website <https://www.studyassist.gov.au/>.

Recognition of Prior Learning

Please note that there is no cost difference between completing a unit through training or Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL), unless specifically required under a current state funding contract held by RuralBiz Training.

Credit Transfers

No fee is charged for credit transfer of units.
